School Vision and Mission

Rand Elementary School's Vision and Mission Statements

VISION

Rand School strongly believes that each student is an important individual and that students are capable of achieving and growing. Our focus is to work together to provide an environment at home and at school that develops the students' highest potential academically, socially, and emotionally. The unique one-room school environment allows for a feeling of family. Everyone in the community works to help each other grow. The goal is to encourage life-long learning for students and to help them see the value of education in their lives.

MISSION

Our primary mission is to provide the best educational experience possible to each student enrolled in school and to also include younger siblings in as many enrichment activities as possible. Through enrichment activities we strive to improve, expand and enrich the instructional program and academic achievement of every student.

School Profile

Rand School is one of the few remaining one-room schoolhouses in California. We serve students in kindergarten through third grade. The school has ten students, a full-time teacher, and a full-time utility clerk. Students use our traditional classroom, computer laboratory, and multipurpose room daily. The multipurpose room serves as not only a classroom, but a library, lunchroom, and music room as well.

The small size of our student body allows our staff to tailor assignments to meet individual student needs. Rand School is a focal point of the community, and we welcome parents and community members to volunteer on our campus.

Comprehensive Needs Assessment Components

Data Analysis

Please refer to the School and Student Performance Data section where an analysis is provided.

Surveys

Every year, we have a Title I Survey that is completed by our families. The survey shows that the majority of parents (100%) are pleased with the staff, instruction, curriculum, policies, and positive school climate at Rand Elementary School. The approval rating for each question was high. Discipline data is available from Aeries and will be used to analyze school safety and climate. Staff reviews surveys with comments to discuss what we are doing well as well as concerns parents may have.

Classroom Observations

Per contract, there are formal observations every two years for teachers. The principal is at Rand at least once each week to observe, support, and make sure the teacher, and aide/van driver/custodian paraprofessional have the supplies and equipment that are needed.

Analysis of Current Instructional Program

The following statements are derived from the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) of 1965 and Essential Program Components (EPCs). In conjunction with the needs assessments, these categories may be used to discuss and develop critical findings that characterize current instructional practice for numerically significant subgroups as well as individual students who are:

- Not meeting performance goals
- Meeting performance goals
- Exceeding performance goals

Standards, Assessment, and Accountability

1. Use of state and local assessments to modify instruction and improve student achievement (ESEA)

School-wide results of state and district assessments in math and language arts (CST, CELDT, benchmarks) are reviewed in late August to identify the school's focus. District pacing calendars in Language Arts and Math, as well as the State Curriculum Frameworks and blueprint standards, are used as planning guides. Test data is warehoused in Illuminate and data is available by school, by teacher, by student group, and by student. This information is used to identify students at risk and to plan instruction and/or re-teaching.

Teachers use benchmark results in Language Arts and Mathematics, as well as classroom formative assessments, to monitor and modify instruction and plan interventions. The teacher also works with other grade level teachers to analyze student data, develop curriculum, create action plans and discuss, model, and observe best practices.

A new K-5 ELA adoption was purchased for 2011-12 in response to ever increasing accountability targets, data analysis results, and staff input. This ELA adoption better meets the needs of our students and is tied to both the CA standards and the Common Core Standards. In addition, the Treasures ELL components were adopted for use K-5 and materials were purchased for all special education programs.

2. Use of data to monitor student progress on curriculum-embedded assessments and modify instruction (EPC)

Students are assessed using Early Literacy, Reading Fluency, STAR Reading, and STAR Math four times a year. Tests are administered in August, and at the end of each trimester. Students also take themed district developed benchmark assessments in Math and English Language Arts that are part of the trimester report cards. The data gained by these assessments at the beginning of the school year, and prior to each reporting period, combined with district benchmark data allows the teacher to monitor and track student progress. The data gathered allows the teacher to make data driven instructional decisions to support student needs in the areas of intervention and/or acceleration.

State testing and benchmark results are posted in Illuminate and student progress is monitored through the reports that are available. Students not at grade level are given additional small group instruction. Students with IEPs are monitored closely by our Resource teacher so goals can be met.

Staffing and Professional Development

3. Status of meeting requirements for highly qualified staff (ESEA)

Teacher recruitment, hiring and evaluation focus on meeting ESEA criteria. As a result, 100% of staff and administration meet the requirements for being highly qualified. District teachers who are not in compliance are supported with Title funding and assisted with individual plans in order to attend staff development and take required courses or exams in order to become NCLB highly qualified.

4. Sufficiency of credentialed teachers and teacher professional development (e.g., access to instructional materials training on SBE-adopted instructional materials) (EPC)

The principal has been trained in Professional Learning Communities (PLC), and has had the Instructional Materials Based Training (IMBT) for the Treasures ELA adoption.

5. Alignment of staff development to content standards, assessed student performance, and professional needs (ESEA)

Staff development is based on district initiatives, individual school, and teacher needs. Student performance data, teacher surveys, and principal observations help determine professional needs. The focus of Rand School's staff development has been predominantly in the area of English Language Arts through trainings such as the ELA adoption of Treasures as well as district-wide grade level collaborations.

6. Ongoing instructional assistance and support for teachers (e.g., use of content experts and instructional coaches) (EPC)

The District provides BTSA coaches for new teachers. New teachers attend professional development workshops taught by the BTSA Resource Teachers. The coaches work with teachers on the California Standards for the Teaching Profession. Other content experts and instructional coaches who provide instructional assistance and support for teachers are the district ELA Coach, ELD Teacher Coordinators, and Special Education Program Support Teachers. They support site teachers by assisting in reading instruction, observing, offering model lessons, and providing feedback on best practices, providing professional development in writing, and ELD strategies. In addition, technology trainings and staff professional development days are used to train in topics such as Illuminate, Aeries, benchmark tests/ analysis, and best instructional practices.

7. Teacher collaboration by grade level (kindergarten through grade eight [K–8]) and department (grades nine through twelve) (EPC)

The Rand teacher collaborates with other teachers at district grade level meetings and trainings, during which they review benchmark assessments, analyze results, plan re-teaching and examine the progress of target students. Since he has four grade levels, he has attended a different grade level each year.

Teaching and Learning

8. Alignment of curriculum, instruction, and materials to content and performance standards (ESEA)

All teachers use state adopted textbooks and supplementary materials, California content standards, grade level expectations, the district pacing calendars and blueprints to prepare for weekly lesson plans and guide instruction in Language Arts, Math and ELD throughout the year. The teacher uses data from the benchmark assessments, CST assessments, and teacher assessments to analyze student performance and adjust instruction accordingly.

9. Adherence to recommended instructional minutes for reading/language arts and mathematics (K–8) (EPC)

Our school follows the California Framework and Sierra Sands USD recommended instructional minutes. Every teacher has a daily and yearly plan to ensure that students receive the appropriate amount of instructional time for each subject to not only meet legal requirements but also meet the individual needs of students.

10. Lesson pacing schedule (K–8) and master schedule flexibility for sufficient numbers of intervention courses (EPC)

Teachers are guided to pace instruction according to the district pacing guides. Pacing guides are being refined in ELA to more closely address identified needs and match the new adoption. Report cards have also been adjusted.

Our school gives 4 (beginning of the year plus three trimester) benchmark assessments during the school year that assess mastery of skills after they are taught. Additional re-instruction is provided to students not meeting their targets. Instruction is individualized to ensure that each student excels at the appropriate level to attain proficiency on grade level standards.

Staff is working together during local professional development days to ensure that all elements of the ELA adoption (i.e. pacing, reporting, benchmarking, writing assessments) are aligned to maximize student success. Outside resources are also utilized.

11. Availability of standards-based instructional materials appropriate to all student groups (ESEA)

All students have sufficient textbooks and instructional materials.

12. Use of SBE-adopted and standards-aligned instructional materials, including intervention materials, and for high school students, access to standards-aligned core courses (EPC)

Current adopted instructional materials for our site are included in a chart located at the back of this document. Sufficient materials are available. Please refer to SARC/Curriculum and Instruction/Textbooks for more detailed information.

Opportunity and Equal Educational Access

13. Services provided by the regular program that enable underperforming students to meet standards (ESEA)

All students receive standards-based instruction at their appropriate grade level. In the classroom, the teacher provides additional access to the curriculum through small group instruction. During reading and ELD, students are grouped by instructional level, assessed, and regrouped appropriately. The teacher is encouraged to examine student work samples and meet at grade-level and/or department level meetings to ensure that students are mastering standards and also determines student needs, adjusts instruction and plans re-instruction accordingly. Intervention action plans are developed when appropriate. Interventions are implemented by the classroom teacher in collaboration with the student's family.

14. Research-based educational practices to raise student achievement

Rand uses many different programs with fidelity to raise student achievement. Technology based programs include: Accelerated Math, Accelerated Reading, Early Literacy, Fluency, MathFacts in a Flash, and Reading Eggs. These programs and intervention during the school day all work together for our students to insure success.

Parental Involvement

15. Resources available from family, school, district, and community to assist under-achieving students (ESEA)

District, community, family and school resources available to assist underachieving students

- District Nurse
- Resource Teacher: Special Education
- Translator
- Peer tutors
- Instructional aide (full school day instructional aide to assist with multi-grade level instruction)
- Parent and community volunteers
- School Attendance Review Board (SARB)
- Family Resource Center
- Kern County Department of Dental Health

Our school communicates with parents through:

- School Compacts
- Parent informational meetings and visitations
- Back-To- School Nights / Open Houses
- Parent Teacher Conferences
- School Site Council
- Title 1 Parent Meetings
- Auto Dialer
- School web pages

16. Involvement of parents, community representatives, classroom teachers, other school personnel, and students in secondary schools, in the planning, implementation, and evaluation of ConApp programs (5 California Code of Regulations 3932)

Our School Site Council meets state requirements for parity and consists of (number):

- 1 Principal
- 1 Classroom teacher
- 1 Other staff
- 3 Parents and community members

At SSC meetings, we participate in the planning and approval of the school plan revision, budget, monitoring and evaluation. Each year the SSC is offered training and leadership participates in training to learn how to analyze data, set goals and plan interventions. Parents are encouraged to participate in governance activities. Parents are encouraged to participate in an annual survey that serves as an evaluation of services. An annual Title I parent survey and evaluation is reviewed by the SSC. Other involvement includes our many volunteers at Rand.

Funding

17. Services provided by categorical funds that enable underperforming students to meet standards (ESEA)

Categorical services focused on the under-performing students at this school include flex reading groups, Title 1 intervention, paraprofessional support and individualized one on one instruction. The teacher works with struggling students to set goals, check progress and celebrate successes. Categorical funds are used to purchase a range of materials to support instruction. Translation services (Spanish) are provided as a centralized service through the district.

18. Fiscal support (EPC)

Above and beyond core, the District supports Rand with sources of money such as Title I.

Description of Barriers and Related School Goals

Rand is geographically isolated from other district schools. Due to the town's isolation, many of our students do not have access to the internet and online educational opportunities outside of the school day. The majority of our students are Socio-Economically Disadvantaged, however with the support provided by the school and district our students perform well.

At Rand we believe all students can learn at a high level. It is our goal to help our students achieve and to close the achievement gap by offering research-based, targeted intervention for all students.
